

Jennifer L. Stangel

Associate

jstangel@acuityforensics.com

Summary

Ms. Stangel has more than 15 years of experience in the mortgage industry and 3 years in the international shipping container industry. Her expertise is in matters involving root cause analysis, analyzing and reconciling banking and credit information, reviewing financial reports and other key financial documents, and preparing schedules for review. Professional experience also includes planning and execution of cross-functional and market specific projects and solutions; facilitating and managing delivery of training programs aimed at improving individual performance; sales and operations development consulting; and standardizing and streamlining workflow procedures.

She has worked with sales, operations, and many levels of management, as well as managed teams and offices both onsite and remotely. She has a proven track record as a highly dedicated, self-managing professional with outstanding communication abilities, strong organizational, analytical and time management skills.

Employment History

Before re-joining Acuity Forensics in 2017, Ms. Stangel worked in Inventory Control for Container-IT, LLC, an international intermodal and shipping container company. Ms. Stangel was previously an Analyst at Acuity Group PLLC (now Acuity Forensics) from 2012-2013.

Prior to working with Acuity, Ms. Stangel was an Area Processing Manager for Wells Fargo Home Mortgage. She has also worked as a Wholesale Operations Manager, Retail Sales Development Consultant, Processing Team Lead, Project Trainer, Mortgage Loan Officer, and Mortgage Loan Specialist with Wells Fargo Home Mortgage/Norwest Mortgage, Inc.

Jennifer L. Stangel (cont.)

Education

Bachelor of Arts in Business and Political Science, Linfield College, 1991

Representative Project Experience

- For a shipping container company, reviewed reports and analyzed transactions and movement to assist in proper and accurate inventory management. Created detailed schedules to document units, looking for any inconsistent information.
- For a lumber corporation, reviewed deposition testimony and analyzed bank and loan statements to assist in determination of the amount and nature of suspected illicit payments (a “kickback” scheme). Created detailed schedules to document the trail of funds, how payments were handled, who received payments, and any other suspicious or inconsistent information.
- For an archdiocese, performed onsite analysis and review of bank statements and deposit records, tally sheets, accounts payable, and payroll records in accordance with the Parish Financial Operations Review program procedures.
- Planned, lead and participated in face-to-face delivery of compliance training to more than 800 operations employees across multiple states in 43 sessions over a 4-week period. This involved creating the training plan; coordinating the many trainers, sites, and materials delivery; ensuring content delivery was consistent with materials, scope, and goals; and ensuring completion on time and on budget.

Community Involvement

- Oregon Humane Society, Volunteer, July 2008-Present
 - OHSTAR (Oregon Humane Society Technical Animal Rescue) team, April 2012 – December 2016
 - Outstanding OHSTAR Award recipient, 2014
 - Shelter Support Award recipient, 2010
- Friends of the Children-Portland, Ambassador Board member, 2007-2012
 - Executive Committee member, 2008-2010
- Bureau of Planning and Sustainability, City of Portland, Master Recycler, 2009
- SMART (Start Making a Reader Today), Portland, Volunteer Reader, 2008-2009